Part 5—Termination of appointment

Residential sales of 1 or 2 properties only	Open listing: You may terminate in writing at any time. Sole or exclusive: The client and agent can agree in writing to end the appointment early. For appointments of 60 days or more, either party can end the appointment by giving 30 days written notice, but the appointment must run for at least 60 days unless both parties agree to an earlier end date.
Open listing	You may terminate an open listing for residential property sales at any time.
Other fixed term appointments (excluding residential property sales)	The parties may agree to a fixed term appointment of their choice. This term may be ended earlier by mutual agreement.
Continuing appointments (for example: letting, collection of rents etc)	You may terminate in writing with 30 days notice, or less if both parties agree.

Part 6—Property sales: open listing, sole agency or exclusive agency

To the client

You may appoint an agent to sell a property on the basis of an open listing, or a sole agency, or exclusive agency.

The following information explains the circumstances under which you will, and won't, have to pay a commission to the agent if the property is sold during their term of appointment.

☐ OPEN LISTING

- You appoint the agent to sell the property but you retain a right to appoint other agents on similar terms, without penalty or extra commission.
- No end date required.
- Appointment can be ended by either you or the agent at any time by giving written notice.

When you must pay the agent

- The agent is entitled to the agreed commission if the agent is the effective cause of sale.

When you don't have to pay the agent

- If the client sells the property privately and the agent is not the effective cause of sale i.e.: purchaser did not contact the agent, did not attend open house inspections etc.

☐ SOLE AGENCY

When you must pay the agent

- If you appoint a new agent during an existing agent's sole agreement term and the property is sold during that term, you may have to pay:
 - A commission to each agent (two commissions)
 - Damages for breach of contract arising under the existing agent's appointment

When you don't have to pay the agent

- If the client sells the property privately and the agent is not the effective cause of sale i.e.: purchaser did not contact the agent, did not attend open house inspections etc.

☐ EXCLUSIVE AGENCY

When you must pay the agent

- The client will pay the appointed agent whether this agent, any other agent, or person (including the client themselves) sells the property during the term of the appointment.
- If the client sells the property, the exclusive appointment expires and if the agent was the effective cause of sale (introduced the buyer to the property) the agent may be entitled to commission.

At the end of the sole or exclusive agency, the parties ☐ Agree ☐ Do not agree that the appointment will continue as an open listing. (Please tick whichever is relevant.)

The Client acknowledges and accepts that the following notice is provided in accordance with the Agent's obligations under section 103 of the Property Occupations Act 2014 (QLD):

(1) The agent has discussed with the client:

- a) whether the appointment of agent is to be for a sole agency or exclusive agency; and
- b) the proposed term of the appointment; and
- c) the consequences for the client if the property is sold by someone other than the agent during the term of the appointment.

Part 7—Commission

To the client

The commission is negotiable. It must be written as a percentage or dollar amount.

Make sure you understand when commission is payable. If you choose 'Other' and the contract does not settle, the agent may still seek commission.

To the agent

You should ensure that commission is clearly expressed and the client fully understands the likely amount and when it is payable. Refer to section 104 and 105 of the Property Occupations Act 2014.

The client and the agent agree that the commission including GST payable for the service to be performed by the agent is:

WARNING: THE CLIENT IS ADVISED TO SEEK INDEPENDENT LEGAL ADVICE BEFORE SIGNING THIS FORM.

This form enables the client to appoint, or reappoint, a property agent, resident letting agent or property auctioneer (the ‘agent’) for the sale, letting/management, collection of rent, auction or purchase of real property. This form must be completed and given to the client before the agent performs any service for the client. Failure to do so may result in a penalty and loss of commission for the agent. If you are unclear about any aspect of this form, or the fees you will be charged, do not sign it. Seek legal advice. If you need more information about this form including what an agent needs to disclose, you can visit the Office of Fair Trading website at www.qld.gov.au/fairtrading or phone on 13 QGOV (13 74 68).

6. AUTHORITY TO PAY COMMISSION

6.1 The Client:

(a) authorises the Agent, and

(b) authorises and directs the deposit holder or any other person to whom any deposit is paid under a Contract of Sale, to pay to the Agent any Commission to which the Agent is entitled immediately upon:

6.1.1 production of the Agreement or a copy of the Agreement; and

6.1.2 the entitlement to Commission arising.

6.2 The Client agrees that the Agent's receipt for the payment of Commission under Clause 6.1 completely discharges the deposit holder from any duty to account to the Client for the Commission paid to the Agent.

7. COMMUNICATION OF EXPRESSIONS OF INTEREST

7.1 Unless otherwise agreed in writing between the Client and the Agent, the Client:

(a) only requires the Agent to communicate to the Client:

(i) all written offers about the sale; and

(ii) only those expressions of interest which the Agent determines in its discretion are serious expressions of interest; and

(b) does not require the Agent to communicate to the Client any verbal offers or expressions of interest.

7.2 The Client agrees that the Agent is not required to submit to the Client any offers or expressions of interest which are less than the Price.

8. MARKETING AND EXPENSES

8.1 The Client authorises the Agent to market and advertise the Property for sale in accordance with the marketing budget and plan specified in the Schedule or as otherwise agreed in writing.

8.2 The Client agrees to pay or reimburse the Agent for all authorised marketing and advertising expenses as set out in Part 8 of the Appointment of Property Agent and the Schedule, whether or not the Property is sold.

8.3 Payment of expenses is due upon demand by the Agent.

9. AGENT'S AUTHORITY

9.1 The Client authorises the Agent to:

9.1.1 allow prospective buyers to inspect the Property at reasonable times;

9.1.2 disclose information about the Property to prospective buyers as required by law or to facilitate the sale;

9.1.3 engage sub-agents or conjunction agents if necessary for a Conjunction Sale;

9.1.4 sign exchange documents on behalf of the Client if specifically authorised in writing.

9.2 The Agent must act in accordance with the Client's instructions and the Act.

10. DISCLOSURE OF BENEFITS

10.1 The Agent must disclose any benefits received from third parties in connection with the sale, as required by the Act.

10.2 Any rebates or commissions from referrals (e.g., to conveyancers) will be disclosed in the Schedule.

11. INDEMNITY AND LIABILITY

11.1 The Client indemnifies the Agent against all losses, claims, and expenses arising from the Agent's performance of services under this Agreement, except where caused by the Agent's negligence or breach.

11.2 The Agent is not liable for any loss or damage to the Property unless caused by the Agent's negligence.

12. PRIVACY AND CONFIDENTIALITY

12.1 The Agent will collect, use, and disclose personal information in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) and the Agent's privacy policy.

12.2 The Client consents to the Agent using personal information for marketing and sale purposes.

13. GST

13.1 All amounts payable under this Agreement are inclusive of GST unless otherwise stated.

13.2 If GST is payable, the Client must pay the GST amount in addition to the stated amounts.

14. TERMINATION

14.1 This Agreement may be terminated in accordance with Part 5 of the Appointment of Property Agent.

14.2 Upon termination, the Client remains liable for any Commission or expenses incurred during the Term if a sale occurs as per Clause 5.

15. GOVERNING LAW

15.1 This Agreement is governed by the laws of Queensland.

15.2 Any disputes will be resolved in the courts of Queensland.

16. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

16.1 This Agreement constitutes the entire understanding between the parties and supersedes all prior agreements.
